For laws and resolutions that have taken effect on or before 01 August 2025 but still lack implementing regulations, Ministries, ministerial-level agencies, and Chairpersons of People's Committees of provinces and centrally-run cities must urgently issue, or submit to competent authorities for issuance, 61 documents listed in Annex II of Official Letter No. 974/TTg-PL. The Prime Minister has required that this backlog of implementing regulations be definitively resolved within September 2025.

For laws and resolutions taking effect from 01 October 2025 onwards, Ministries, ministerial-level agencies, and Chairpersons of People's Committees of provinces and centrally-run cities must proactively prepare drafts, submit, or issue regulations within their authority, ensuring that the implementing regulations come into effect simultaneously with the laws and resolutions.

Above is IDVN Lawyers' legal update on the Prime Minister's directives concerning the progress of submission of draft laws and resolutions for consideration and adoption by the 15th National Assembly at its 10th session, as well as the promulgation of implementing regulations.
